

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY JUNE 1.

IGNORANCE, OR WHAT?
The Daily Recorder, for some reason which it is difficult to explain, prints the following editorial note:

"Extraordinary claims now due from the state amount to $286,000. This sum is supposed to include the charitable and penal institutions, all of which would be obliged to get along on tick until next fall. Concerning these extraordinary claims the Milwaukee Journal pertinently remarks that the state is unable to meet these claims not because it is poor, but because it is the victim of political juggling. Secretary Timme knew, as did every other member of the state administration, that it would be necessary to levy a tax to meet extraordinary appropriations, and so recommended in his annual report published last fall. Had there been no election last year, and no fear of the political effect of such action, the tax would have been levied then. But the politicians wished to humbug the people, and they did."

It is unfortunate for the Recorder that it was left in the commission of such a gross error as to state that there was no money in the treasury with which to pay the current expenses of the charitable and penal institutions. It is presumable that the Recorder does not desire to make a charge which it well knows is utterly false. Is it ignorance, then, that aids the Recorder, or is it pure malice? The fact is that there is plenty of money in the treasury with which to pay the current expenses of the state institutions. Not a bill of any description, for building, for repairs, for improvements, for maintenance, for clothing, for coal, for services, for anything else needed, will go unpaid when due; neither will the work of building or making improvements be delayed in consequence of the alleged destitution of the treasury.

With these facts before them, why do the Recorder and the Milwaukee Journal insist on making statements that they know are false? Is there any wisdom, or justice, or influence, or political sagacity in that kind of journalism?

TAKE VILAS.

A man with "personal magnetism" is what, according to the Janesville Recorder, the democrats of the state want for a leader. It has no fault to find with Chairman Usher, whom it calls genial. It is not a chairman it says whom the democrats want for a leader, but a man as a candidate for governor or for United States senator who can "rally the sleeping democrats and call to his support a few thousand republicans." "Personal magnetism is of the first importance in this make-up." If any democrat who thinks he possesses the requisite quality in sufficient abundance to meet the exigency will send us his name and address. The Sentinel will cheerfully act as the medium of presenting him to the public.—Continued.

Suppose the democrats try Mr. Vilas. He was the leading spirit of the Cleveland administration having had "personal magnetism" enough about him to draw such a man unto him as Grover Cleveland. A man who could get on the warm side of Cleveland, the coldest man that ever sat in the presidential chair, so good democratic authority says, must have the "personal magnetism" the Recorder wants in a candidate for governor.

The Wisconsin democrats have put a variety of men in the gubernatorial race, such as Mallory, the just judge; Pratt, the honest hard-working farmer; Jenkins, the accomplished lawyer; Woodward, the old soldier; and Morgan, the skilful advertiser; and now let them try the gifted orator, W. F. Vilas.

The Recorder may argue, and with some show of reason, the Gazette admits, that Vilas has been two or three times soundly thrashed while he was in the cabinet directing the policy of the democratic administration, twice in his own county and last year in his effort to carry the state for his chief, and therefore he won't do. But then, '88 was hardly a fair test of Vilas's magnetism. When he tried to carry Cleveland he had too much of a load, and he may fare better in a gubernatorial race.

Viewing the unfortunate situation the Wisconsin democrats are in, from a non-partisan and an unselfish point of view, we think the best place to go for "personal magnetism" is No. 1, N. Main street, Madison, Wisconsin. There is this much in favor of this investment—the democratic party wouldn't be any worse off than they are now.

McGARIGLE FREE.

The notorious boodler, W. J. McGarigle, ex-warden of the Cook county hospital, has got the better of justice and is a free man. He voluntarily returned from Canada, appeared in Judge Shepard's court, pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy, and was fined one thousand dollars and released.

The circumstances that brought about this termination of the case are these: McGarigle and McDonald were under sentence of two years each in the penitentiary for robbing the county hospital. McGarigle fled to Canada, and in the meantime McDonald's case was taken to the supreme court and a new trial ordered. The attorneys on both sides were of the opinion that at a new trial neither of the boodlers would be convicted, and therefore recommended that a fine of one thousand dollars be imposed, and the matter dropped. The case against McDonald will also be dismissed on the payment of a like fine.

The skill and persistency of the boodlers and their attorneys have got the better of justice. In addition to this queer proceeding, it is said that McGarigle can now draw his back salary which amounts to $1,874.96, for which he holds upaid warrants. Against these warrants the county has no defense nor no set off. It is supposed that McGarigle also holds a number of other county warrants which he bought up from time to time during the "boodler" regime. He is now at liberty to prosecute his claim on these.

A democratic newspaper assumes that Cleveland cannot be made the democratic candidate for president in 1892 by public dinners, measures of management nor cunning political deliverances, nor can he be lured by similar means. "It is a waste of worry and effort for either friends or foes to discuss the question now," says this philosopher. Notwithstanding all that, Cleveland is now the democratic candidate for president in 1892; and he will continue to be till the polls close election day in that year.—Chicago Journal.

Let us see. Speaking about public dinners, the people are reminded that a certain dinner in New York, one week before the election in 1884, did as much as any other blunder of that blundering campaign, to defeat the republican candidate.

In an article upon "Cheap Academic Titles" in the current Forum, Mr. Leonard Woolley Bacon says: "We venture to guess that there are more doctors of divinity in Wisconsin, for example, than in the Empire of Germany, the land of learned theologians." Did Mr. Bacon make this statement with a full knowledge as to the number of doctors of divinity in Wisconsin? Guess not. If he were to count them very likely he would withdraw his statement.

Warrants have been drawn by the state board of supervision for the month of May as follows:—

State hospital for insane	$ 8,394.4
Northern hospital for insane	8,183.25
School for deaf	3,843.67
School for blind	1,924.44
School for boys	6,956.43
State prison	6,474.01
State public school	4,118.60
Total	$39,705.40

The late Edward Sanderson, of Milwaukee, left no will. His estate is said to be worth about $250,000, and that the income from it is some $10,000 a year.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Col. Eggersoll's law practice is said to bring him $100,000 a year.

Miss Willard is speaking in the Pennsylvania prohibition campaign. Mrs. J. Ellen Foster is also a campaigner.

In the first thirty-six lines of Grover Cleveland's speech in New York Monday night he makes use of the personal pronoun in the first person twenty-seven times.

Mrs. Mollie Corwin, of Shelbyville, Ind., has just secured a divorce from her seventh husband in order to marry her real and only love. The fair Mollie's experience has been varied, and probably not without its agreeable features.

Peter Laing, who is 104 years of age, has just been admitted to church membership in Elgin, Scotland. He admits that he has been a little tardy in joining the church, but now that he has joined, he intends to go right in with the other young folks and do his share of active work.

General Law Wallace was a member of the military commission that tried the assassins of Abraham Lincoln. In the charge against the assassins they are accused of conspiring "with one John H. Suratt, John Wilkes Booth, Jefferson Davis, John N. Saunders, Beverly Tucker, Jacob Thompson, William C. Cleary, Clement C. Clay, George Harper, George Young, and others unknown to kill and murder" Abraham Lincoln. The proceedings against Tucker were never presented.

NO NEED FOR MILITIA.

All of the Braidwood Miners Join the Strikers and Peace Prevails.

Braidwood, Ill., June 1.—Things at Braidwood are very damp. Everything and everybody is thoroughly saturated with the cold, penetrating rains which have fallen during the last three days. Two large companies of the militia have been allowed to go home, which leaves only company E of Chicago and H of Kankakee on guard duty at the mines. The Italians are keeping in out of the work. They have not been near the militia camp or caused any disturbance during the last three days.

A meeting of the miners was held Friday afternoon. It was called by order of the officials of the northern Illinois district. Adj. Gen. Vance and the coal operators were invited to be present. There were 800 men at the meeting, only about one hundred of whom belonged to Braidwood. They were nearly all Scotch, Irish, and Welsh miners, only a few Italians and negroes being present. One of the negro miners moved that the strike be continued. Another negro seconded the motion. It was put to a standing vote. Hundreds stood up for the strike, and when those who wanted to return to work were counted they were less than a dozen. The meeting then broke up.

It is understood that Superintendent Cory will bring in a lot of new men to take the strikers' places. All is quiet at the camp and mines now and things will remain so until the company attempts to put in new men in the strikers' places. While the striking miners have been riotous, the gravity of the situation here has been somewhat exaggerated. The report that 1,000 Italian miners came over from Coal City and drove out workmen in the mines here was not strictly in accordance with the facts. There are not more than five hundred Italian miners in Coal City and not all of these joined the crowd that marched to Braidwood. It is believed that matters will quiet down now and that no further trouble will take place for the present.

Clear the way.
Without loss of time when the international canal is blocked up by reason of constipation, chronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this ailment is prone to become lasting and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Ecstetter's Stomach Bitters is the precise remedy to remove the obstruction effectually, but without drenching or weakening the blocked bowels a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostrums swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The list of ailments remedied by Bitters is a long one, and of the medical fraternity, sanction the claims of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and recovery, regularity to the bowels, liver, and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.

W. J. McGARIGLE RETURNS.

THE CONVICTED BOODLER AGAIN IN CHICAGO.

Appearing Suddenly in Court He Pleads Guilty, Is Fined $1,000, and Is Once More Free.

CHICAGO, June 1.—William J. McGarigle, ex-warden of the county hospital and ex-chief of police, has returned to Chicago, and thus furnished the climax to one of the most sensational and notorious chapters of Chicago's criminal history. McGarigle's arrest, indictment, and escape, his wanderings through Canada, accounts of which have been frequently published, are still fresh in the minds of all.

While Judge Shepard was engaged in listening to a highway robbery case, the court room door opened and the well known face of W. J. McGarigle appeared. Many of the spectators and lawyers in the room recognized him, and there was a general hum, and everyone arose in his seat and craned his neck to get a better view of the convicted "boodler."

To say that it was a sensational scene would be putting it mild. McGarigle was closely followed by State's Attorney Longenecker, Attorney Francis Adams, E. J. Lehmann, and James Fitz-Simmons. He entered the railing, and walking to a chair near the entrance to the judge's chamber, sat down, while the State's attorney and lawyer Adams stepped over in front of the judge's bench.

"We will suspend for a few minutes," said the judge to the attorney in the case on trial, "as I have another matter to attend to." Then turning to the State's attorney he said: "Proceed."

Attorney Adams then stepped forward and said: "In view of the position of the Supreme court in the case of Edward McDonald the State's attorney has agreed to let the same decision apply to the case of W. J. McGarigle, provided the defendant will plead guilty and submit to a fine. This we have agreed to do."

"Is W. J. McGarigle in court?" asked the court.

McGarigle arose and faced the court. "You have heard what counsel has said in this matter?"

McGarigle nodded his assent, after which the court turned to State's Attorney Longenecker and said: "Do you agree to this disposition of the case?"

The State's attorney said that he was willing the case should be thus disposed of.

"Do you now wish to withdraw your plea of 'not guilty' and enter a plea of 'guilty'?" was asked McGarigle.

"I do," was his only response.

Then, Mr. Clerk, let the records show that W. J. McGarigle pleads guilty to conspiracy and is fined the sum of $1,000 and costs.

"There is one thing more," said the State's Attorney. "We desire to have the forfeitures in the other cases set aside on the payment of costs, and will also ask for a nolle prosequi in the other cases."

The court ordered that the records so show.

"Now, in regard to the cases pending against Edward McDonald," said Judge Longenecker, "I am confident that a conviction can be had in of another trial and would therefore desire to take a nolle prosequi in those cases. He was in jail one year, and a half and has suffered enough."

The clerk then instructed the clerk to let the records so show.

It required half an hour to figure the amount of the costs in the McGarigle case, when E. J. Lehmann gave his check for the amount, and left the court-house with Mr. McGarigle.

RAIN IN TORRENTS.

Great Damage in the Eastern and Middle States by Storms.

New York, June 1.—The rain which has been falling throughout this State for the last few days has caused intense suffering to families who occupy houses in the lower districts, and many are leaving to seek shelter on higher ground.

Reports have come in of bridges along railroads being washed away and telegraph poles down in all directions, cutting off communication with the West, and leaving this city in a deplorable state.

At Chicago the rain has been coming down in torrents for the last twenty-four hours and the sewers can not carry the water away fast enough, and many persons have their cars and houses of escape entirely cut off, except by the use of a boat.

At Indianapolis the rain has been coming down in such torrents for the last twelve hours that people who live in the suburbs are compelled to travel many miles in a round-about way to gain entrance to the city as the creeks in several instances are on a level with the bridges.

TORNADO IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Several Persons Killed, Others Injured, and Much Property Destroyed.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., June 1.—A tornado struck a section of country about five miles east of here this afternoon, and after demolishing a vast amount of property it passed down the Potomac river, overturning small boats, overturning small buildings, and playing havoc generally with small buildings near the banks of the stream. The storm traveled over an area of ten miles, and then passed out to sea. Very few trees were left standing along the water front. Those that escaped were twisted out of shape.

The house of Martin Doran, which stood directly in the tornado's path, was lifted from its foundations. Two women who were in the little frame kitchen were hurled twenty feet and seriously injured. A boy in which Henry Vogel and J. Powell had taken refuge was blown down and the two men killed. The damage to the crops was great.

FIVE MEN CRUSHED TO DEATH.

By the Collapse of a Building a Dozen Persons Are Killed or Injured.

DANVILLE, Va., June 1.—Five persons were killed by the collapse of a building here yesterday. J. G. Penn was building a large brick tobacco factory on Bridge street, nearly 200 feet long and six stories high. The walls had been completed and the carpenters were at work inside. The wind was blowing hard and about 5 o'clock the entire building came down with a crash. Robert Pruitt, William Young, G. B. Jones, Buck Hooper, and D. N. Collins were killed. Henry Cokes will die, and six others were badly injured. Several men were buried under the ruins and a great deal of time elapsed before they were extricated.

British Vessel in the Pacific.

New York, June 1.—There are stationed in the waters of the Pacific eight British war vessels of modern type, each fully equipped and ready for immediate service. The one head of these cruisers belongs to Rear Admiral Algonquin C. F. Heneage, whose flag flies from the Swiftsure. Of these eight vessels only the Swiftsure is an armored battle-ship. All the others are unarmored cruisers.

Forecast to Leave Home.
Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated and have headache and uneasy complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to-day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Everyone likes it. Lane's Family Medicine 50 cents.

Those Unhappy Persons who suffer from nervousness and dyspepsia should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless nervous, dyspeptic subjects. Price 25 cents.

TWELVE HUNDRED LOST!

This is the Latest Estimate from the Pennsylvania Flood.

TWO CITIES ARE WRECKED

Cambria City and Johnstown Literally Swept Away—$15,000,000 Damage.

SARG HOLLOW, Pa., June 1st.—Later dispatches from the flooded district are very meagre. Twelve hundred is now the generally accepted estimate of lives lost.

Newspaper correspondents have reached Florence six miles from Johnstown. Two hundred bodies have been ordered. Cambria City is wrecked. The total damage from the flood is estimated at from twelve to fifteen million dollars.

Woman's Modesty.
Many women are prevented by feelings of decency from consulting a physician in those disorders arising from functional derangement of her peculiarly delicate organism, and the most serious results are often caused by this neglect.

To such persons Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an especial boon, as it offers a cure and safe cure for all those distressing disorders to which women are peculiarly subject, while it saves a modest girl or woman from the embarrassment of a personal consultation with a physician. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. See guarantee on bottle wrapper.

AN AGED FORGER IN THE TOILS.
Dr. H. L. Moody, Once a Prominent Man, Arrested on Grave Charges.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Dr. H. L. Moody is a fine looking old man who has a weakness for signing other people's names to checks, was arrested yesterday on a description furnished the police three years ago. Gen. M. La Rue Harrison, an inspector of the postal money-order system, was taking the aged forger to Washington, D. C., where he was wanted.

Gen. Harrison's search for Moody, who is an old friend of his, has taken him over eight months, and has taken him into Canada and Mexico, besides various other parts of the country. The two men traveled together in California, while Moody was passing a bogus check for $500,000, which he had drawn on the Los Angeles bank for $500,000, and later another of $100,000 on J. B. Hartman of Worcester, Ohio. The stubs of his check-book show that he has swindled old men by the score to the extent of several thousand dollars.

WISCONSIN'S TRAIN ROBBER.
Think They Have Him in Custody at Hortonville—Not Yet Identified.

OSTROSKO, Wis., June 1.—A man has been arrested at Hortonville who is thought to be the man who held up the passengers on the Milwaukee & Northern railroad near Ellis Junction. The officials are sure they have captured the right man, and the trainmen have been sent for to identify him. On searching the prisoner nothing was found but a small amount in silver and a razor. The prisoner refuses to give his name, but says his home is in Illinois. From a dispatch received from Beloit it is almost certain that the train robber is the man who held up passengers on the Long-lake Shawano stage about a week ago.

Heavy Failure in Chicago.

Pertinacious scall disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than any other ailment. While not immediately fatal it is among the most distressing, venereal and degenerating ills that flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the multitude of modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising.

The above bright and benevolent face, is Dr. A. W. Acker, of England, discoverer of the celebrated Acker's English Remedy for Consumption and other popular preparations. Dr. Acker practised in his younger days among the middle classes of London, and was the means of doing great good, but his health failed and he found himself in the grasp of consumption, with all its attendant dangers.

While in this condition, he discovered the celebrated English Remedy, saved his own life and has since saved the lives of thousands who were on the sure road to death. Any man or woman who is coughing and sucking, or who is coughing especially in the morning, who raises or has a tight feeling across the chest, who has sharp stitches and draughts of blood, or who has short breathing, should realize that these are the first symptoms of consumption which, if neglected, will lead to a fatal termination.

Remedy has cured more than one thousand persons who unquestionably had consumption and who were given up by their friends. It merits its popularity and is sold by reputable druggists in every city and town in America. You can't afford to be without it.

THEY CLAIM THE STORE.

Contest Over the Griffiths Property Now on Trial.

THE CLAIMS AS OUTLINED.

Pleadings in the Case Made To-Day—Other Doings of The Courts.

Pleadings in the suit of Archie Reid against Capt. Piny Norcross were filed in Judge Patterson's court to-day.

On the part of the plaintiff it was claimed that the store was held on a lease from Mr. Griffiths. When Mr. Norcross secured the store for E. W. Lowell, therefore, he should have paid the rent to the plaintiff instead of Mr. Thomas Lappin.

Mr. Lappin's grounds for claiming the rent, were that he was entitled to possession of the store as mortgagee, and that the lease executed between Messrs. Reid and Griffiths was not in good faith.

Testimony in the case began this afternoon at two o'clock.

The deposition of Mr. Griffiths, which was read first, set forth that no permission had been given Mr. Lappin to take possession of the store.

In the circuit court arguments for a new trial were to have been made in the Hedding-Curtis case, but the matter was continued. The court calendar will be taken up by Judge Bennett Monday.

A FIELD OF TROTTERS.

Over One Hundred Fast Horses For the June Meeting.

OTHER YEARS FAR BEHIND.

A Glance at Entry Lists, Now Rapidly Being Filled—Exceptional Fields.

One hundred flyers will stir up fair ground dust in another ten days. One hundred very speedy pieces of horse flesh will show Janesville people what fast traveling really is. Considerably over one hundred enthusiasts in the new grand stand will witness on one another's feet and howl at the top of their voices about the evident incompetency of the judges. All this will be true because on June 11th at two o'clock the first race of the Janesville Trotting Association's June meeting will be trotted, and for four days the city is promised some of the best speed exhibitions ever seen in the northwest.

The entry book for the meeting is now rapidly filling. A field of over one hundred horses is already assured, the entries being so much larger than ever before, that additional stalls must be built at once. Each year the Janesville meeting has been more and more a feature in the trotting chronicles of the northwest; each year it has brought larger delegations from neighboring cities. It has done much to advertise the city as a place of enterprise, and this year it is promised that the meeting will be more noteworthy than ever. Secretary H. D. McKinney's arrangements for the meeting are now approaching completion, although his busiest time is really but just at hand.

Thus far, the entry books show among the well-known horsemen entered, "Knapp" McCarthy, John Splan, M. E. McHenry, C. O. Nelson, H. A. Hill, George West, of Chicago, and many others. All will come prepared to keep their stables well to the front.

Some of the fields that the starter's bell will bring out will be notable ones. Two especially fast races will be the 2:18 trotting race, and the free-for-all pace. In the trotting race there are entered Geneva S., with a record made in this city last June of 2:19; Joe Davis 2:17; Nobby, 2:18; Lady Helen, 2:22 and Kit Curry, who trotted so fast a race on the Janesville track, and who won her record at Cleveland 2:18.

The pacing race is fair to be one of the fastest ever started in the northwest. At the head of the entries is Wilcox with a record of 2:16; Tommy Linn, with a record of 2:15; follows, and Rocky Ford, 2:19; Dr. M. 2:17; and El Monarch, 2:17; are also entered. Rocky Ford, Wilcox, and Dr. M. were among the horses that trotted Janesville turf a year ago. The programme for the week may be summarized as follows:
